Reference Letter

I would like to commend Sakhile and his team for the excellent work done during the Colgate New Building project. During this time Sakhile displayed true professionalism under difficult and often adverse circumstances.

As you will know things never go smooth with new building projects and I often had to ask Sakhile to redo what he has done already but no task was ever too difficult or cumbersome for him. He always kept his cool and tackled his work with enthusiasm, willingness and the urgency I expected and often demand from my vendors.

His attitude also affected his team positively and they too adopted his style and seemed to work very well with him.

Once again please express my sincere thanks to him and his very competent team !!!

Regards,
 Nathan
